delivering real results on economic development, public safety, and improvements to parks, roads and infrastructure.	I graduated from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and hold a degree in agricultural management with an emphasis on finance and economics.
Now, I hope to bring that same commitment to community and track record of results to the Board of Supervisors. I will work tirelessly to ensure Placer County continues to be the best place in Northern	My skills in agronomy, labor housing, negotiation, strategic planning development and water management give me the experience to be your next Supervisor.
California to live, work and raise a family. We can do that if continue to work together and focus on the fundamentals of local government: public safety, education, infrastructure, parks and open space, quality of life and a quality economy.	The community some of us have called home for decades is changing. Placer County has always had a history rooted in our soil. Farmers that came before me turned this county into the thriving place it is today.
I am proud to be endorsed by community leaders and first responders, including Rocklin Mayor Ken Broadway, Supervisor Bonnie Gore, Former Supervisor Jim Williams, and Firefighters representing Rocklin and Loomis.	As we move into the future, we cannot forget our past. As your next Supervisor, I will advocate for the preservation of open space and agricultural land, while creating an economic environment where everybody can benefit.
I humbly ask for your vote. Please contact me directly with questions, comments, or suggestions.	The roots in Placer County are strong. By solving problems together, we can unite residents, businesses and government in our march towards a more successful Placer County.
